

Palo Corona Spring Plant Scavenger Hunt

Palo Corona is home to more than 500 different species of plants, across diverse habitats including grassland, forest, wetland and chaparral. A few of the plants native to Palo Corona are listed here with their common and scientific names, and the habitat where they can be found. How many can you find?

Arroyo Willow (Salix lasiolepis), Riparian Woodland & Wetland

Brittleleaf Manzanita (Arctostaphylos crustacea), Maritime Chaparral

California Bay (Umbellularia californica), Hardwood Forest & Oak Woodland

California Tan / Tanbark Oak (Lithocarpus densiflorus), Hardwood Forest

Chamise (Adenostoma fasciculatum) Maritime Chaparral

Chinquapin (Chrysolepis chysophylla), Maritime Chaparral

Coast Live Oak (Quercus agrifolia var. agrifolia), Hardwood Forest & Oak Woodland

Coast Redwood, (Sequoia sempervirens), Rdwd. Forest, Riparian Woodland

Common Rush (Juncus effusus subsp. pacificus), Wetland

Coyote Brush (Baccharis pilularis subsp. consanguinea), Coastal Chaparral/Scrub

Deerweed (Acemison glaber), Grasslands

Long-beaked Filaree / Stork's Bill (Erodium botrys), Grasslands

Marsh Microseris (Microseris paludosa), Grasslands, Coastal woodland

Monterey Pine (Pinus radiata), Monterey Pine Forest

Silver Lupine (Lupinus albifrons var. albifrons), Grasslands

Sticky Monkeyflower, (Diplacus aurantiacus), Coastal Chaparral/Scrub

Palo Corona Autumn Plant Scavenger Hunt

Palo Corona is home to more than 500 different species of plants, across diverse habitats including grassland, forest, wetland and chaparral. A few of the plants native to Palo Corona are listed here with their common and scientific names. How many can you find?

Baby Sage
(Salvia microphylla)

Mints
(Mentha)

California Aster
(Symphotrichum chilense)

Coast / Seaside Wild
Buckwheat (Eriogonum latifolium)

Coast Redwood
(Sequoia sempervirens)

Giant Chain Fern
(Woodwardia fimbriata)

Shaggy-barked Manzanita (Arctostaphylos tomentosa subsp. tomentosa)

Silver Bush Lupine (Lupinus albifrons var.
albifrons)

Small-flowered Nightshade
(Solanum americanum)

Sycamore
(Platanus occidentalis)

Toyon
(Heteromeles arbutifolia)

Western Lady Fern (Athyrium filix-femina var.
cyclosorum)